The Admonitory Hippopotamus: or, Angelica and Sneezby by Edward Gorey

host (Aznade)

- 1 One day when she was five Angelica was in the gazebo, playing snap with her brothers. A
- 2 Suddenly she caught sight of something rising from the ha-ha. B'
- 3 It was a spectral hippopotamus. "Fly at once!" he said. "All is discovered." B'
- 4 She remembered the bread pudding under the carpet. C
- 5 She ran into the woods, and was not found by the servants until the sun was going down. D
- 6 Seven years later she sneaked away from St. Torpid's to buy forbidden jujubes. A
- 7 The hippopotamus attracted her attention from the back of a pantechmicon. "Fly at once!" he said. "All is discovered." B
- 8 She remembered the novel with yellow covers at the bottom of the laundry bag. C
- 9 She jumped on a tram, and was noticed only at closing time in a distant cinema. D
- 10 Ten years came and went, and Angelica was being married for the first time. A
- 11 The hippopotamus peered out at her from behind the altar. "Fly at once!" he said. "All is discovered." B
- 12 She remembered the packet of letters up the chimney. C
- 13 She pedaled off on a stolen bicycle; it was several weeks before she was recognized in a remote seaside lodging. D
- 14 Another ten years passed; Angelica, at the height of her notoriety, attended a picnic in the Bois de Boulogne. A
- 15 The hippopotamus showed himself on the top of a rock. "Fly at once!" he said. "All is discovered." B
- 16 She remembered the emeralds in the cold cream. C
- 17 She drove off in her host's Panhard-Levassor, and was not seen again until the season had begun in Cagnes-sur-Mer. D
- 18 Seventeen years went by; on the Seppuku Maru in the Indian Ocean, Angelica had an assignation with a Eurasian stoker. A
